Learn Anywhere

In response to the changes necessitated by the spread of COVID-19, Tulane has created a toolkit designed to help students transition to online learning. Take a look at the “Getting Started” guide here.

Information Technology Services

If you run into any technology trouble, Tulane’s Information Technology Services are available to help. In particular, the Tulane Service Desk is available through phone or email to help when you run into any issues.

Take a look at all of the available services offered here.

Academic Advising

Every Tulane student is assigned their own Academic Advisor to help you make the best decisions possible when it comes to your academic and career plans. Academic Advisors can help you:

- Explore and choose majors and minors
- Develop academic plans
- Cultivate career strategies
- Investigate pre-health and pre-law tracks
- Connect with faculty and major advisors

Don’t wait to connect with your advisor! Click here to learn more.

Academic Learning and Tutoring

Tulane offers:

- Individual tutoring
- Supplemental instruction for specific courses
- Writing coaching
- And other forms of academic support

All of these services are provided at no additional cost to undergraduate students. Connecting with the Academic Learning and Tutoring Center at the start of your academic career will be a key portion of your academic success. Learn more about the ALTC’s services and offerings here.

Success Coaching

In tandem with the services offered at the Academic Learning and Tutoring Center, Tulane also offers individual Success Coaching geared towards helping you meet your own personal academic, career, and personal goals. Learn more about Success Coaching here.
